

Erasmus Mundus Networking Event at the Aalborg University (Denmark) Budget & Programme Sheet

Date: Saturday, 24th April 2010

Session 1: Day Networking

Time: 1330hrs – 1430hrs

Location: (Fibigerstraede 15, Auditorium C), Aalborg University, Denmark

Date: Saturday, 24th April 2010

Session 2: Dinner Networking

Time: 1900hrs - 2200hrs

Location: Duus Vinkjælder, Østerågade 9, 9000 Aalborg, Denmark

Note:

- 1) Targeted participants include students from the following Erasmus Mundus (EM) Programmes at Aalborg University (AAU):
 - i) Joint European Master in Environmental Studies (JEMES)
 - ii) European Masters in Materials Science (EMMS)
 - iii) Erasmus Mundus Master in Global Innovation Management (GIM)

- 2) Participants for the event must attend both Sessions 1 and 2 in order to be eligible for the complimentary dinner sponsored by the Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni Association (EMA) during Session 2. Some additional requirements include:
 - i) Sign up to the facebook group & provided a written text about themselves
 - ii) Completed survey about Erasmus Mundus Academic Conference 2011

Programme Sheet

Time (hrs)	Description	Objectives	Segment Coordinator
Session 1
1330-1335	Welcome Address (5 min)	1) Introduction to past similar networking events organised by JEMES students in 2009 at Aveiro University, Portugal and Technical University of Hamburg-Harburg (TUHH), Germany 2) Present the initiatives and objectives of this year's networking events: Initiative 1: Present the facebook social networking platform for JEMES, GIM and EMMS students Initiative 2: Propose first gathering between Erasmus Mundus students currently studying at AAU in the form of a cultural dinner to be organised in early May. Initiative 3: Introduce participants to EMA website. Allow EM students to learn about events organised by EMA and how they may participate in EMA activities	Dave Goh
1335-1355	Segment 1: Student introduction about respective EM programmes (20min)	Objective: Allow Erasmus Mundus students to be acquainted with each others' study programme and study experiences from a students' perspective 1) 1 representative from GIM, EMMS, JEMES to talk about shared /common experiences so far 2) Student representatives will provide illustration through photographs on slides 3) What are their experiences while moving in between universities? 4) General challenges faced?	Binh and Namitha
1355-1415	Segment 2: Graduates from EM programmes (20min)	Objective: Allow EM students to gain first-hand information about Erasmus Mundus graduate students' experience 1) To provide an insight into the experience of EM students after graduation (Invite 1 JEMES graduate student doing PhD studies & 1 EMMS graduate student working in the industry) 2) Do employers have special expectations of graduates from the Joint European Masters Programmes?	Dave Goh
1415-1430	Segment 3: Discuss about possible Erasmus Mundus Academic Conference 2010 (15min)	Objective: To agree on general objectives for the Academic Conference and select committee members for the organisation of the conference 1) Decide on objectives for conference based on survey 2) To unveil names of interested volunteers for organising team, and let them interact and agree on how they will proceed with organisation work 3) Ask for further feedback about the organisation of this Academic Conference	Binh and Namitha

Time (hrs)	Description	Objectives	Segment Coordinator
Session 2
1900-1930	Dinner registration		Binh
1930-2000	Dinner is served amidst dinner games	*Dinner games Closing address and give thanks to organising committee members  Announcement of date for cultural dinner to be held in early May 2010 for participants living in Aalborg.	Dave Goh
2200	End of Networking Dinner.		Namitha