Special regulations for enrolment at TUHH

Documents of application

In addition you will have to provide

- an officially authenticated copy of university entrance qualification (general certificate of secondary education or high school leaving certificate or college diploma or equivalent, depending on your country's educational system, plus university entrance test result if applicable).
- a score report of the GRE General Test. The GRE institution code of TUHH is 8165 (no department code required). Further information is available at www.gre.org. (Graduates from European universities and holders of a DAAD or ERASMUS MUNDUS scholarship are exempted) and Chinese applicants must additionally submit the APS-certificate of the "Akademische Pruefstelle" of the German Embassy in Beijing (Landmark Tower 2, Office 0311, 8, North Dongsanhuan Road, Chaoyang District, Beijing-100004, Tel: 0086-10-6590-7138/-7141, Fax: 0086-10- 65907140, E-mail: kuaps@163bj.com). Chinese applicants who hold a scholarship from DAAD or ERASMUS Mundus or another recognized German scholarship organization will be exempted from this requirement.

If your final degree certificate and final year transcripts are not yet available, you are kindly requested to submit an official provisional degree certificate and transcript or an official letter of your registrar, dean, or academic supervisor, listing the remaining subjects and the prospective grades as well as the prospective final grade average. Authentication of all documents will be accepted only if performed by a notary public, by the German Embassy or Consulate in your home country, or by the institution that has issued the original document. (Secondary or intermediate school certificates authenticated by your university or vice versa cannot be accepted.) In Germany authentication can also be performed by the respective resident's registration office („Einwohnermeldeamt“).

If the documents are not in English, French, or German language, officially authenticated translations have to be added. Please note that authentication itself, too, must be performed in English, French, or German language. Documents of application pass into the possession of TUHH and cannot be returned to the applicants, so please do not submit any original documents.

Candidates will be selected by TUHH professors specialised in the field upon a proposal of the JEMES coordination committee.

Submitting the application

Applications for enrolment at TUHH should be submitted to the following address:

Hamburg University of Technology (TUHH)
International Academic Programs - JEMES
Schwarzenbergstr. 95
D-21073 Hamburg
Germany

The application form and PDF files of the various documents requested can also be sent by email (study@tuhh.de). Applicants must ensure that they send all documents as soon as possible. Applications with incomplete documentation cannot be considered.

Applicants will get a confirmation of receipt by e-mail. Because of the very high number of applications, the registration of applications and the issuing of confirmations of receipt may take several weeks. Therefore, we recommend to send the application through a courier or registered mail service which confirms the delivery of the documents. Candidates will be informed by air mail as soon as the final result of the application is available.

Enrolment at TUHH will take place end of September. Courses start in the second half of October.

Start of the program

The beginning of the master's degree courses at TUHH is October 1st. Lectures at TUHH usually start in mid October.
